The Johns Hopkins Center for Communication Programs (CCP) is a leader in strategic communication and research to facilitate access to information and exchange of knowledge to improve health. CCP's knowledge management and eLearning expertise are demonstrated by their management of the Knowledge for Health (K4Health) Project and the Global Health eLearning Center.

The USAID ASSIST Knowledge Portal is made possible by the generous support of the American people through the U.S. Agency for International Development and its Bureau for Global Health, Office of Health Systems. The information provided on this web portal is not official U.S. Government information and does not represent the views or positions of USAID or the U.S. Government.
