

Antigua and Barbuda

As part of USAID's Zika virus response, ASSIST is providing limited Zika care improvement support to the Ministry of Health in Antigua and Barbuda to strengthen newborn and well-baby care systems, specifically with regard to assessment of babies with suspected or confirmed congenital syndrome associated with Zika (CSaZ), and improve overall care and support of children and families affected by Zika.

For more information on ASSIST's work in Antigua and Barbuda, please contact assist-info@urc-chs.com [1].
